Artistic Help Needed!

Is one of your God-given talents the ability to create beautiful art? If so, we need you! The 6th-8th grade Sunday School class is interested in creating a mural on one of our classroom walls but we really need the help of an artist.

Interested and talented artists are invited to contact Liz Specht at: Lizspecht5@gmail.com.

Coffee Hour- Please sign up on the sign-in sheet on the clipboard in the MCS kitchen-we are still in need of a host/hostess for December 23, so if you've been thinking about it but haven't signed up, please do so! The sign up sheet for 2019 will be available in early December.

Remember, Coffee Hour is held every Sunday after the 9:30am service.

Silence is golden.....

As you enter the Sanctuary, please help us maintain a quiet and respectful atmosphere for those who are preparing themselves for the service through prayer and reflection.

We ask that this time be one of silence.

New Confirmation Classes Forming: A new confirmation community is forming to explore our Episcopal tradition and help students articulate their Christian faith. Students will be prepared for the sacramental rite of Confirmation in 2019 through specially designed classes, worship experiences, field trips, and retreats. All young people in the 10th Grade who are fifteen or sixteen by the fall of 2018, along with their parents are cordially invited to an orientation session with the clergy. Please let Cn. Richard or the parish office know of your interest as either a student or mentor.

The Historic and Cultural Artifacts Commission cordially invites you to attend the

Costume Coffee Hour and Pie Tasting in the History Center, Veterans Day, November 11, 2018 after the 9:30 service and the National Ringing of the Bells of Peace at 11:00 AM celebrating the centennial of the Armistice of World War I the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month.

The bells will toll 21 times.

It would be delightful to see the proud wearing of hats, medals and military attire from any era and the Costume Corner near the library has an assortment of fun outfits and accessories for ladies, gents and wee folk.

Have you sent in your pledge?

If you have already sent in your pledge card, please accept my thanks for your continued support and generosity.

If you haven't sent yours in, please do so as soon as possible; if you haven't completed your card, additional cards and envelopes are available in the back of the church.

Thank you!

Weekly E-Blasts!

In addition to providing parishioners with the weekly announcements at weekend services, we frequently send out electronic announcements of items that are of general interest and are time sensitive. If you haven't been receiving our weekly “e-blasts” and would like to, it's as simple as going to your computer.

Go to the parish website (www.carolinechurch.net), and click on “contact”. You will see a dropdown window-click on “join our email lists”. This will take you to another screen where you will see a blue box in the middle “special announcements”. Fill out the three boxes that ask for your name and email address, and you're done!

You will receive a confirmation email from the automated system; after that, every time we send out an important notice, you will be on the list of recipients.

Columbarium at Caroline Episcopal Church

As we have now ended our discount pricing period, we thank all who have taken advantage of securing niche spaces in our future columbarium. Having provided parishioner discounts, we are also aware that the idea of a Columbarium sparked many family end of life discussions. The response to date has been enough to financially offset the construction by nearly fifty percent. Although the discount period has passed, parishioners may still reserve niche space by making a down payment and paying the remainder over time. Please see the Columbarium Policy for additional details.

Don Muffly and Ginny Apmann remain available to answer any questions you may have regarding the columbarium.

2018 Adopt a Family

Caroline Church will once again take part in the diocesan “Adopt a Family” program, designed to help make the upcoming holiday season more joyous and blessed for families in need.

This year, we will provide a young immigrant family with two children, a very special Christmas. Yolando and Roberto are raising a 5 yr old daughter and year old son, whose needs are basic - clothing, some toys for the children and a few house hold items. Please take a tag as you leave church, purchase your item, wrap it for Christmas, and attach the tag to the outside of the gift. Tags are currently available in the Narthex of the church. All gifts can be returned to the church vestibule or to the parish office, no later than December 9. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Congratulations to Edy and Frank Thornhill on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary! May God continue to bless you, your marriage and your family.

We wish you many more years of good health and happiness together.

It's Time for the Fall College Care Packages!

The Caroline Church Christmas Fair is quickly approaching. Mark your calendars now! Saturday, December 1st from 9:30 – 3:00. Please prayerfully consider how you can help make this year's fair a great success. Below are some suggestions on ways you can contribute your time and talents:

- ◆ Bake Cookies for the Cookie Walk. Please note that all cookies should be home-baked; they don't have to be home-made.
- ◆ Donate any new items that you have around the house for the "new gifts" table. Many of us have "that" closet or drawer where these items seem to accumulate. Do you?
- ◆ Shop on the day of the fair and bring a friend (s) with you!
- ◆ Make sure to pre-order your Christmas wreath. Contact Susan Rydzeski at 631-751-7693.
- ◆ Drop off your gently used Christmas ornaments and decorations so that the tables will be overflowing with Christmas cheer for our eager shoppers.
- ◆ Do you make a good pot of soup? Volunteer to prepare a pot or to make a kid friendly tray of macaroni and cheese for the Lunch Room. Contact Lainey Cash at 631-428-0475.
- ◆ Help to set-up for the fair on the evening of Thursday, November 29th. This involves setting up tables and moving furniture.
- ◆ Help needed during the day on Friday, November 30th, to set up the merchandise to be sold.
- ◆ Help to break down the fair on Saturday, December 1st at 2:45.
- ◆ Plastic bags are needed. If you have any, please bring them in.
- ◆ Bake anything that you want that can be sold! There is always a bake sale section at the Christmas Fair.
- ◆ Many people are needed to help staff the tables the day of the fair. You could help for an hour or the whole day!
- ◆ The Thrifty Boutique wants your donations of jewelry, clothing (clean, wearable, and on hangers please), accessories such as ties, belts, and scarves. Donations can be left at the Church office.
- ◆ Donate something special to this year's silent auction. Contact Barbara Russell at 631-689-9434.
- ◆ Volunteer to prepare and move the outside portable sign providing basic fair information to the community.
- ◆ Are you good with children? Are you good at very simple crafts? Why not volunteer to help with the children's crafts tables.
- ◆ Santa will be making an appearance at the fair this year and will be setting up for pictures downstairs in the Marco Smith Building. Are you the person that can transform the space into one shining with Christmas spirit?

All fair proceeds, except for those from the Cookie Walk, will be distributed by the Vestry to community outreach. Proceeds from the Cookie Walk will benefit the Church School.
 Contact Virginia Cash at 631-751-3541 or at vcash@viriniacashcares.com for more information.

Operation Christmas Child is Underway

This marks the 25th year in which “Operation Christmas Child” gift-filled shoeboxes will be shipped to children in need.

Please help us continue to spread joy and hope to children around the world who find themselves in desperate situations. Fill your shoebox with small toys and other gifts, label it for a boy or girl, and include your check for $9 made payable to “Operations Christmas Child”. It's as simple as that to bring a smile to the face of a child who would otherwise face a bleak Christmas.

Please-NO CASH and no toothpaste!

Your gift will help spread the Good News of God's love.

Empty boxes are available for pickup at the parish office, Mon-Fri during normal business hours. On weekends, they will be available at the back of the church and in the main room of Marco Smith building during coffee hour on Sunday's after the 9:30 service.

A volunteer will deliver all boxes collected at Caroline Church to our assigned drop off point on Tuesday, November 13; we can accept your filled shoe boxes until noon on Tuesday but regret we will not be able to accept them after that time.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Refrain

Psalm 146

- 1 Hallelujah!
Praise the LORD, ' O my ' soul! *
I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my ' God while I ' have my ' being.
- 2 Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any ' child of ' earth, *
— ' for there ' is no ' help in them.
- 3 When they breathe their last, they re'turn to ' earth, *
and in that ' day their ' thoughts ' perish.
- 4 Happy are they who have the God of ' Jacob for their ' help!*
whose ' hope is in the ' LORD their ' God;
- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and ' all that is ' in them; *
who ' keeps his ' promise for ' ever;
- 6 Who gives justice to ' those who are op pressed, *
and ' food to ' those who ' hunger.
- 7 The LORD sets the prisoners free;
the LORD opens the ' eyes of the ' blind; *
the LORD lifts up ' those who are ' böwed ' down;
- 8 The LORD loves the righteous;
the LORD ' cares for the ' stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but ' frustrates the ' way of the ' wicked.
- 9 The LORD shall ' reign for ' ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all gene' rations. ' Halle' lujah!

Glory to the Father, and ' to the ' Son, *
and ' to the ' Holy ' Spirit:

As it was in the be'ginning, is ' now, *
and ' will be for'ever. A'men.
