My Dear Friends in Christ,

With the conclusion of the month of May, we enter into the long church season of Sundays after Pentecost, aptly referred to as the “green season”. Pentecost, the festive Day of the Holy Spirit when red is our color, and Trinity Sunday, signified by white, are over and the liturgical color is green. This after Pentecost season coincides in our hemisphere with the growing season of nature. The earth is greening and we rejoice, heartily saying good bye to cold and ice. Green is for growing, a fitting color for this part of the Christian year.

An aspect of growth for many this month of June is graduation. Caroline Church congratulates all of our youth who are transitioning from high school to college and our young adults who are graduating from College or Graduate School as they enter a new phase of their life journey. Whether we are graduating or not this month, we can all reflect on the challenges of our life’s journey and the transitions needed to make some successful navigation. Sometimes changes are thrust upon us from the outside, requiring us to suddenly adapt. At other times, we have some time to plan and navigate a course that we hope will lead to growth and well-being.

As Jeremiah 29:11 says, “For I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.” Some may remember the famous experiment called the Pygmalion Effect. Twenty-five grade school teachers were told their students were underachievers from apathetic families. Another twenty-five were told their students were high achievers from supportive families. The test scores of the “underachievers” dropped by 25 points, while the scores of the “overachievers” increased by 50 points. However, the students had been randomly divided into the two groups. All factors were equally distributed; the only difference: the expectations of the teachers.

I wonder how that might apply in our own lives? Expect excellence from your children and you are likely to see it. Expect better things from your spouse and it’s likely to happen. Expect more from yourself and you will move to a higher level of success. Expect a better job and it will happen, expect extraordinary results in your business and you will “see” ways to make that happen. Are the expectations we have pulling us forward or holding us back?

Louis L’Amour said, “Everyone has it within his power to say, this I am today; that I will be tomorrow.” Some people sometimes cringe at being told this principle. We all like to have something or someone to blame for our misfortunes. Circumstances, family history, our spouse, our boss or our “luck” are likely candidates for finger pointing. We may need to start believing that “luck” is when preparation meets opportunity.

Henry David Thoreau said, “I learned this, at least, by my experiment: that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours. He will put some things behind, will pass an invisible boundary; new, universal, and more liberal laws will begin to establish themselves around and within him; or the old laws be expanded, and interpreted in his favor in a more liberal sense, and he will live with the license of a higher order of beings. ...If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.”

Maybe we should not blame circumstances or the expectations of others for where we are today. We need to claim our purpose, mission and destiny by creating our

Our Caroline Church Vision Statement:

To help people encounter the living God together and live transformed lives for Christ.

Our Mission Statement

* We, the parishioners of Caroline Church of Brookhaven, are committed to Jesus Christ, to His teaching, His life, death and resurrection, in our call to serve and worship Him, in the tradition of the Anglican Communion.

* We strive to share our faith and blessings for the furtherance of His kingdom in an environment of love, understanding, and support, through prayer, worship, Christian education, and fellowship.

own future. We can begin to “see” the fulfillment of our dreams by setting clear goals and plans of action.

Not only those graduating, but all of us can ask ourselves if we are where we thought we would be at our current stage of life. Where would we like to be five years from now?

In his book, A Year of Days, Bishop Edmond Browning says of the graduates he has addressed over the years, “...students are not being trained to seek after an easy life. They are being trained to handle difficult truths. My prayer for them is this: That they will not be discouraged at the truths they hear. That they will find the strength to confront evil squarely, and name it for what it is. That they will be brave, as human beings in every generation are called up to be brave, each era in its own way. And that they will never forget that all of us are in the service of One who experienced the full extent of human cruelty and still found a way to love the world.” With Bishop Browning’s prayer in mind, we honor our graduates and all who are making transitions in their lives.

May the Holy Spirit give us all the guidance we need to grow in whatever stage of life we are living.

Spring Blessings to all,

Cn. Richard+

Trust in “Love’s” Shadow

Fed on candy-coated sentiment,
“Love” has become inflated
And eclipsed trust
Which lacks a genre.

Too encompassing to match two realities,
“Love” slips between and does not bind.
Readily followed by “but,”
It is a word for sushi, the Rangers, goldfish.

Offering gifts that do not give, but promise everything,
It seeks the modal imperative—
“He loves me therefore I should”—
And justifies etioloating over-protection.

By example is trust built
In the full light of day
We control only our ethics
And trust is our grip,
A way to rear children
And to let ourselves flourish.

Help needed to keep you informed

There are several ways we communicate news to our parish family. The bulletin, the web site, the (more or less) weekly email blast and The Carillon are just a few ways. One other method we have used is to send out a mass email to everyone we know that has an email address. This is used sparingly, and only for messages that cannot wait until Sunday. Most often it is used to inform the parish of a death—and the funeral arrangements. So it’s a list that most parishioners want to be a part of.

There are over 250 addresses on that last list, and our new hosting service has policies that prohibit sending out more than 100 emails per hour. The policy helps prevent unscrupulous subscribers from sending out spam, so the policy is a good one. But we need an alternate method to keep you informed.

We can send out a mass message if we use their “announcement list” format, which requires that all recipients opt in—and gives them the ability to opt out. So we need you to opt in to that list. There is a link on the main page of the church web site to allow you to do just that. We will also be sending out an email to all who were on the old list. It will be timed to go out about the time this issue of The Carillon arrives in your home. You simply have to follow the instructions and you will receive confirmation that you have joined the list.

Remember that this is not the weekly email blast, which can be subscribed to or unsubscribed from separately. We realize that some don’t want the weekly emails, but probably do want to hear about things like funeral arrangements in time to attend the wake or service. You need to add yourself to this list if you want to receive those messages.

Our Anglican Heritage

Blandina and Her Companions, Martyrs of Lyons

St. Blandina, born in 162 AD, was a slave in the second century and patroness of young girls. Christianity first came to Lyons in the early 2nd century when a missionary came to Gaul (modern-day France) and established the church of Christ in Lyons and nearby Viennes. As the church grew, persecution against the Christians in Gaul began. They endured all kinds of shame and personal injuries including being forced out of their homes and businesses so that nothing belonging to them could appear in public. Mobs were formed to beat, stone and rob them. Adding fuel to the fire of persecution, unbelieving servants, fearing lest they should be taken along with their masters, sought to protect themselves by charging their Christian masters with gross crimes such as cannibalism, incest, and other shameful practices.

When believers were arrested they courageously confessed their allegiance to Christ and then they were imprisoned and ultimately martyred for their faith. A slave girl named Blandina was one who perished during this terrible religious persecution under the emperor Marcus Aurelius.

The Christians were restrained in the worst part of the prison, in dark and cramped spaces, and many of them suffocated there. Some were placed in stocks; others were placed in a hot-iron seat where their flesh was burned. After enduring torture, forty-eight Christians were taken to the amphitheater to “entertain” the crowd during a Roman holiday by being thrown to wild beasts.

Blandina was one of them. Though she had already endured numerous tortures and treated with inhumane brutality, she was then suspended on a stake and to taunt the wild beasts. Though it was intended to terrorize her fellow Christians, her torture inspired them for when they looked at her on that stake it reminded them of Christ on the cross, who was crucified for them and that everyone who suffered for Him would enjoy eternal life with God. Amazingly, none of the beasts attacked her so she was taken down from the stake and cast into prison again.

According to the description of her death by the Christian History Institute, Blandina face death heroically:

“On the last day of the contests in the amphitheater, Blandina was again brought in with Ponticus, a boy of about 15. Every day they had been brought to witness the sufferings of others and pressed to deny their faith and swear by idols. Ponticus died first, and Blandina remained the last. She had encouraged many others and saw them go on before her to Jesus. Now she was ready to hasten after them. She faced her death rejoicing-as if being called to a marriage feast rather than wild beasts. The report stated: After the scourging, after the wild beasts, after the roasting seat, she was finally enclosed in a net, and thrown before a bull. And having been tossed about by the animal, but feeling none of the things which were happening to her, on account of her hope and firm hold upon what had been entrusted to her, and her communion with Christ, she also was sacrificed. After the bodies of the witnesses were exposed for six days, they were burned to ashes and thrown into the Rhone river. The bodies of those who had suffocated in prison were thrown to the dogs, and guards were stationed to prevent the remaining Christians from burying them. The pagans hoped to prevent even the hope of resurrection for the Christians.”

An ancient letter that recorded the persecution in Lyons was included in the Ecclesiastical History of Eusebius and stated: “While we were all trembling, and her earthly mistress, who was herself one of the contending martyrs, was apprehensive, lest, through the weakness of the flesh, she should not be able to make a bold confession, Blandina was filled with such power, that her ingenious tormentors, who relieved and succeeded each other from morning till night, confessed that they were overcome and had nothing more that they could inflict upon her. They were amazed that she continued to breathe after her whole body was pierced and torn asunder. In the midst of her sufferings, as she for a moment revived, she repeatedly exclaimed, ‘I am a Christian; no wickedness is carried on by us!’”

Blandina honored her God by her faithfulness and courage in the face of danger and ultimately death in the year 177 AD. She and her contemporaries are memorialized by a marker at the place of their martyrdom in the ancient amphitheater. You can visit this marker in Lyons, France today. Blandina and her Companions are remembered yearly throughout the Episcopal Church on June 2.

Camp Caroline!

What is Camp Caroline?

Camp Caroline is an extension of our school year children's program. During Camp Caroline, your children will have the opportunity to learn more about the Christian faith through stories, arts and crafts, songs, and games.

How does it Work?

Come to church during the summer and bring your children into church with you. Right before the sermon (about 20 minutes into the service), the Camp Caroline teachers will stand up in the aisle. All children, ages 4 through fourth grade, will be invited to stand up and will be led out of the church to the basement of the Parish House, where they will participate in a casual, stimulating, fun, hands on summer church program. At the end of church, you can pick up your children in the basement of the church.

When is it?

Camp Caroline will run for 12 Sundays, beginning Sunday, June 21st and ending Sunday, September 6th. Remember, starting on June 21st, the usual 9:30am worship service starts one hour later, at 10:00am.

How can you help?

We need both adult and teen volunteers to assist Camp Caroline this summer. Please consider volunteering one Sunday this summer. No experience is necessary. There will be a sign up sheet at coffee hour, or you may call me to let me know what Sunday is good for you. We need only 12 People to sign up. Please give this some thought as you plan your summer schedule. Thank you.

For more information call Debbie Felber at 255-2929.

We look forward to seeing you and your kids at Camp!

Young Parishioners (20s/30s/beyond!)

Young Parishioners are taking the month of June off.

Daughters of the King

Over a year ago a group of women from Caroline Church began a study to learn about The Order of the Daughters of the King and discern whether we felt called to become members of the Daughters of the King. The Daughters of the King provides an opportunity to grow in our love and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ while serving in our church and community. Through vows of prayer and service, the Order brings us together to help each other take that closer walk with God.

After a year of study and discernment we have together decided to become the St. Teresa of Avila chapter at Caroline Church.

On Sunday June 14, 2015 at our 11:15 service our chapter will be instituted and a service of admission of members will take place. We welcome your presence and support during that service. The new members will be Chris Muffly, Claire Mis, Ginny Apmann and Maritza Groth.

It is our hope and prayer that others may be led to join us in the future.

In His Service,
Chris Muffly

after we say "I believe".*

Stewards of the Environment

The Stewardship Committee would like to thank all those who adopted a vegetable plant as part of our Home-to-Community Garden. Please plant them, water them, and pray that they grow to produce beautiful vegetables. Once the vegetables are grown, we ask that you pick them and return them to Caroline Church where they will be collected and donated to the Soup Kitchen.

Make a Commitment to Stewardship

The Stewardship Committee invites all parishioners to reduce their carbon footprint by making a concerted effort to Drive-Less on Sundays. Consider walking to church or carpooling with a neighbor. Ride a bike or simply try to organize your errands into one driving trip rather than many trips.

Ministry Highlights:

The Stewardship Committee would like to highlight the ministry work of Chris and Linda Haring in caring for the gardens of Caroline Church. Chris and Linda certainly have a green thumb and a creative talent for planting beautiful blooming flowers and plants. Please join us in extending a special thank you for their dedicated stewardship to the Caroline Church grounds on Sunday June 21st at the 8:00 service.

Kids Movie Night at Caroline Church

Parents and children are invited to join us for a viewing of the movie The Lorax: a wonderful story with environmental implications Saturday June 20th at 7:30 pm at the MCS building.

Adult Educational Lecture:

Join us for an informative lecture on Sustainable Gardening and Composting presented by Jim Docherty of Docherty Tree Experts/Clovis Axion Inc. Tuesday June 30th at 7:00 at the MCS building.

Joint Foyer Dinner

The Joint Foyer Dinner will be held on Saturday, June 13th at 5:00pm in the MCS building. All parishioners are invited to join us. Please contact Mirjana Ellis at 689-2627 if you are interested in attending.

Parish Family News

Katherine Kaiser, our Joyful Noise Choir Director, will be awarded her Ph.D. this month from Stony Brook University. We all congratulate her for this great accomplishment.

Her future plans now include moving to Pennsylvania. So it is with sadness that we will be saying goodbye to her after being with our parish for 10 years. Katherine has nurtured the musical talents of our young people for over a decade. She has inspired our children to sing in a way that truly honors Our Lord while encouraging them to express their love of Jesus joyfully through music.

Katherine has been gifted by God with an extraordinary talent and we thank her for sharing her precious gift with us for all these years. We are richer for it. May God continue to guide and bless her life as she celebrates His love through music and song in Pennsylvania

Parish Ministry Opportunities

Caroline Church's Acolyte Guild

One of the most dedicated groups of young people we have at Caroline Church is the teenage boys and girls that make up our acolyte guild. Every week you see them properly attired in their distinctive red and white vestments and reverently ministering at the holy altar. The ministry of acolyte is rooted in holy scripture, "Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Never lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering persevere in prayer." (Romans 9:12). Being a crucifer, acolyte or server is a ministry of presence and servanthood.

Acolytes are those who feel called to assist the clergy and people of our parish in liturgies of this community gathered together to worship God. It is a privilege to be an acolyte and with that come several responsibilities. Acolytes walk in processions; carry candles, crosses, and banners; assist in preparing the altar for the Holy Eucharist, and teach the congregation through their actions about the norms and customs of liturgical practice.

We are calling for all those currently in the fifth grade and older to join this dynamic group of young people ministering to God at the altar. Our dedicated Acolyte Director Mr. Duy Nguyen helps create a total experience for our acolytes that is focused yet fun. At the end of this and next month, we will have a couple of training sessions to help equip our young people to confidentially carry out their ministry, as they learn more about the church, its tradition, history and liturgy. Each apprentice acolyte will be paired with an experienced acolyte over the summer to acquire some on-the-job training. We usually have a couple of outings a year, such as cookouts and paint ball battles. Our yearly Acolyte Recognition Day and party will take place in the fall. If you have any questions or would like to register for the training sessions, please call the parish office at 941-4245, or see Cn. Richard or call Mr. Duy Nguyen at 675-6169.

Graduation Time

God our Father, you see your children growing up in an unsteady and confusing world: Show them that your ways give more life than the ways of the world, and that following you is better than chasing after selfish goals. Help them to face the challenges of life with your steady hand and use the opportunities that are before them as building blocks for a new journey. Give them strength to hold their faith in you, and to keep alive their joy in your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

One of the prayers for youth in our Book of Common Prayer speaks of children “growing up in an unsteady and confusing world” (page 829). The challenges faced by every high school, college, and postgraduate student are enormous. For a job well done, Caroline Church congratulates and applauds our 2015 graduates.

Student	Graduating From/with	Going for/to:

or contact Lindsay at: lindsay.baldwin.porter@gmail.com or Lucia Buscemi at luciabuscemi@hotmail.com.

We are fasting for 30 hours to raise money for hungry children in South Sudan.

We will be collecting new socks, small toiletry items, granola bars, reusable shopping bags, and small bottles of sunscreen to distribute to our homeless contacts in DC during our mission trip in July. Please help us by leaving these items in the box marked "DC trip donations" in the MCS Building. Any other small items you think would be appropriate to distribute would be welcome.

Nancy and Bill Clark, members at All Souls', will host the CYC at their house (15 Schooner Cove, Setauket) for a pool party on Sunday, June 14. This will be the official end of our CYC regular meetings for the summer. Please bring a snack or beverage to share. Contact Nancy at ndclark@optimum.net with questions.

Caring for the Caregiver Support Group

I imagine that at this point, it's been 3 ½ years, most of you are aware of and, hopefully, familiar with the fact that the Caregiver Support Group continues to be held on the second and fourth Saturday of the month. Meetings are held in the Parish House at 9:30 am and are free, open to all church and community members, not disease specific and no registration is required. Note also that the group is facilitated by a licensed geriatric social worker.

I encourage all parishioners to be aware of those you interact with such as your friends, co-workers, neighbors, relatives, etc. that may be caring for a loved one. What a kindness it would be to reach out and let him/her know that there is a wonderful group of local men and women struggling with similar demands and stresses who provide amazing insight, knowledge and support to one another.

As always, for further information contact Virginia at vcash5msw@aol.com or call 428-0902.

Safe Church

A reminder that all staff, church school teachers, and any key holders having access to any of our parish church buildings need to take safe church training on-line or in-person. An in-person Safe Church Training will be at the Mercer School of Theology 65 Fourth Street Garden City on June 20. Since this offering will close out soon, please call the Mercer School soon at 516-248-4800 Ext. 140 to register for the class.

Almost all of our parishioners are able to complete an on-line course at any time convenient for them. Safeguarding Online provides training in short, focused courses that can normally be completed in 30 – 40 minutes, and may be taken from any location where a high-speed internet connection is available. A specific password will be given to each individual user.

Caroline Church's Safeguarding Online Administrator is Chris Haring, who will assist members of our parish in signing in and accessing Safeguarding Online training. Please contact him at haringjc@gmail.com to get your signup information or if you have any questions about this policy.

It is our goal for everyone to complete their training this Spring. I know this may be a challenge for some of you but we must do everything we can to keep our children and youth safe and respect the dignity of all. RDV

Theophilus
Healing Mission
A Chapter of The Order of
St. Luke the Physician

Our last OSL, Theophilus Healing Mission Chapter's Healing Service before the summer begin is Friday June 5th at St. Cuthbert's Church, Magnolia Place in Selden, starting at 7:30pm. There are no Healing Services during July and August, but we do offer prayer for healing after the 10:00 am service on Sundays. Our next scheduled Healing Service will be September 4th. Our June 19th meeting is our Pot Faith Picnic at Ellie Scimeme's home in Stony Brook.

We were blessed by our Region 2 Healing Conference with Rev. Nigel Mumford. He spoke on PTSD specifically dealing with our Veterans and others who have faced trauma of any type. I'll share some of the story with you next month.

Save the dates October 30th and 31st will be our joint Healing Event with the South Shore Chapter. The Rev. Joe and Tara Shepley will be our speakers.
