Church School News

We are off to a great start. The teachers are excited about the new year and so are the children. We have many exciting events planned for this year. Please make sure to check the Church Website for updates.

October 5 we will have the Blessing of the Animals. The service will begin at 10:00 am at the Carriage Shed. This is located in the front parking lot. Please bring your animals for a special blessing.

October 6 will be Youth Sunday. The youth will take turns ushering, presenting and reading. Youth Sunday will be the First Sunday of each month. After the 9:30 service the youth group will go out for breakfast, around 11:00. October 6th will also be 'Bring a Friend to Church' day. We will have a special coffee hour for everyone. During coffee hour we will have sign ups for the Christmas Pageant. The pageant this year will be on December 22 during the 9:30 am Service. Each class will take part in the pageant. We did this last year and it really worked out great. Please make sure to take home an Operation Christmas Child flyer, the boxes are to be returned by November 10th. They are located on the table in the MCS building.

October 20th will be the Fifth Grade Holy Communion Breakfast with parents. Each Fifth grade student will bring home invitations. This is a wonderful way for the parents to get to know each other.

October 27th will be Games Day/Carnival Day. The green will be set up with Carnival games, and pumpkins to be painted. We will make up teams for everyone who signs up to play, so please make sure to sign up. The sign up sheet is in the MCS building. Prizes will be awarded. The names of the team will be Saint Francis, Saint Mark, Saint Matthew, Saint John, and Saint Luke. Extra points will be awarded if you find out information about your team name and if anyone dresses up like their Saint. The games will be followed by our annual Spaghetti Dinner, in the MCS building.

CYC News

CYC meetings are going very well. I would like to invite all 6th-12th graders (and their friends) to join us every Sunday from 4-6pm, except first Sundays when we go out to brunch following the 9:30 service. We are enjoying our new lectionary-based curriculum, Making It Real and Relevant, especially since we get to watch movie clips! The gospel according to Harry Potter? And of course... pizza. We are now asking $2 per slice of pizza, but please speak to me if you're a little short on cash and we'll work it out!

A few notes:

- ♦ Sunday, October 27th the youth will help out with the parish Spaghetti Dinner. Please arrive at 4 pm ready to work! This will count for community service hours; talk to Mary if you need documentation.
- ♦ If possible, please refrain from picking up your youth before 6:00. We are usually having our discussion between 5:00 and 5:40, and it can be a bit disruptive for youth to leave or get the message that they have to go.

OF COURSE, if the choice is between coming for an hour or not coming at all, PLEASE come for whatever time you can!

Sincerely,
Lindsay Porter

Caroline Conversation On-line

The Caroline Conversation, started in June of 2009, is an on-line discussion group for members and friends of Caroline Church. The format is a weekly consideration of the gospel for the week ahead. The discussions have been wonderfully thoughtful and thought provoking, and we look forward to hearing from more Carolinians. All you need is an e-mail address to sign up!

If you would like to join the Conversation, just send an email to Fr. Richard at carolinerector@gmail.com from the e-mail address where you would like to receive messages, and you will receive an "invitation" to the Conversation with directions for joining and a covenant shared by participants. Hope to hear from you soon!

Our overnight conference is a time for reflection on our common faith and to focus on Christ. It is an opportunity to de-stress and get away from responsibilities, to grow in Christ in an environment where we can love, laugh, and reflect with other Christian women.

Adult Study

All Souls' Episcopal Church

Wednesday's

October-December 18th

6:45pm-8:45pm

We will meet Wednesday evenings downstairs in the Parish House at All Soul's Church, 10 Mill Pond Rd., Stony Brook. Wine & cheese social hour at 6:45pm, videos and discussion beginning at 7:15, Compliment about 8:45pm.

The videos will be Gary A. Rendsburg, "The Book of Genesis," 24 half hour lectures, normally viewed two per evening. The lecturer approaches Genesis from four perspectives - literary, historical, theological, and archaeological. He shows that the apparently simple tales in Genesis are the product of great literary sophistication. He compares the text of Genesis with sources from other cultures, he gives insights into the religion of the time, and he takes advantage of a vast array of archaeological evidence. His lectures present various theories about the question of authorship. He also addresses certain social issues-the role of women in the Bible, the great variation among translations of the Bible, and the ways in which different generations of Jews and Christians have understood the text differently.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE FOR ALL?

How Inequality is Undermining the American Dream

How the Children Suffer

“Endow the king with your justice, O God... He will defend the afflicted among the people and save the children of the needy.” Psalm 72:4

Economic choices and institutions must be judged by how they protect or undermine ... the family. (US Conference of Catholic Bishops)

In January 2012, Samantha Garvey captured the attention and the hearts of many Long Islanders when she was selected as a semi-finalist in the prestigious Intel Science Talent Search. Samantha and her family were homeless, living in a shelter. Her story is an extraordinary testament to the strength and courage of poor people. Unreported was the fact that some 500 other Suffolk County families were also homeless at the time, living in shelters or motels.

Just before the Holidays, on December 3, 2011, Newsday reported that 90% of the largest school districts on Long Island saw an increase in the number of children living in poverty between 2007 and 2009. The child-poverty rate on Long Island was 7.6% in Nassau and 7% in Suffolk. For black and Hispanic children on Long Island, the poverty rate was 14.2% in Nassau and 15.8% in Suffolk. These disturbingly high numbers are based on the federal poverty level ($23,050 for a family of four) which is considered unrealistically low. Behind each statistic are L.I. children and their struggling parents.

The census report on childhood poverty showed that “children in poverty, especially young children, are more likely than their peers to have cognitive and behavioral difficulties, [and] to complete fewer years of education.” Deborah Garcia, chief executive of Long Island Head Start, told Newsday, “Poverty is one of the biggest factors in having children not able to perform along with their [more] advantaged peers when they get to kindergarten.” Or as economist Paul Krugman wrote in the New York Times on January 9, 2012, “our government falls down on the job of creating equal opportunity. The failure starts early: [low-income] children are all too likely to suffer from poor nutrition and receive inadequate health care.” As LI Cares and Island Harvest reported in their 2010 study on Long Island hunger, over 110,000 children a year have to rely on food pantries for help. And the December 11, 2010 edition of the New York Times reported on a UNICEF study of 24 of the world’s richest countries titled The Children Left Behind which found that the U.S. ranked among the worst on the material, educational and health well-being of its children. Here begins the unraveling of the American Dream.
